

Employee Handbook

Company-wide employment standards, workplace expectations and employee responsibilities.

Internal Company Document | Version 1.0 | Effective: 1 September 2026

1. Purpose and Scope

- This handbook applies to permanent employees, fixed-term employees and contractors where relevant to their engagement.
- It provides general workplace guidance. Individual employment contracts and applicable Australian law take precedence where there is a conflict.

2. Working Hours and Attendance

- Standard business hours are Monday to Friday, 9:00 am to 5:30 pm, with a one-hour unpaid meal break unless a team arrangement states otherwise.
- Employees should be ready to work at their agreed start time and notify their manager as soon as possible if they will be late or absent.
- Flexible and hybrid arrangements require manager approval and must meet team coverage requirements.

3. Code of Conduct

- Employees are expected to act honestly, respectfully and professionally.
- Bullying, harassment, discrimination, retaliation and threatening behaviour are not acceptable.
- Company systems, information and equipment must be used responsibly and for legitimate business purposes.

4. Performance and Development

- Managers normally conduct regular one-to-one meetings and performance reviews.
- Employees are encouraged to identify learning goals and discuss training opportunities with their manager.
- Performance concerns should be addressed early through clear expectations, coaching and documented follow-up.

5. Remote and Hybrid Work

- Employees working remotely must maintain a suitable work environment, protect company information and follow security requirements.
- Confidential documents must not be left visible to unauthorised people, and work devices should be locked when unattended.

6. Workplace Health and Safety

- Employees must follow workplace health and safety instructions and report hazards, incidents and injuries promptly.

- Emergency procedures, evacuation instructions and reasonable safety directions must be followed.

7. Confidentiality

- Confidential business information must only be accessed, copied or shared when required for authorised work.
- Employees must not disclose confidential company or customer information after leaving the company.

8. Questions and Reporting

- Employees should normally raise workplace questions with their manager or People & Culture.
- Concerns involving misconduct, harassment, safety or security should be reported through the appropriate company reporting channel.
